HOCKEY. A. C. Team Defeats the Brooklyn Skating Club.

In an interesting game of hockey at the Clermont Avenue Skating Rink, Brooklyn, last night, the Brooklyn Skating Club team was defeated by the New York A. C. team by a score of 8 godls to 3. In the first half the Brooklyn players took a lead of one goal. They put up a strong game and the New Yorkers were only able to score once. In the second half the Brooklyns were tired and the visitors did much better work and quadruple intercollegiate gymnast exhibition, in which Yale, Princetton, Pennsylvania and New York University participated. took place in the gymnasium of the latter institution, at University Heights, last night. It was as pretty an affair of its kind as was ever seen in this city, and reflected the greatest credit on the patronesses, Mrs. H. H. MacCracken, Mrs. E. de Z. W. Roderick, Mrs. J. J. Stevenson, Mrs. H. M. Bould, Mrs. A. L. Bouton, Mrs. J. J. Amory and Mrs. F. M. Crossett. There was a big crowd of society women present. The gymnasium was tastily decorated with the different college colors, and an orchestra rendered a choice selection of music during the evening. Early in the day Prof. George Goldie of Princeton came over with a strong contingent. Prof. Ander-son of Yale had a formidable array of talent, which showed up well during the night. Including a couple of specialties the programme was made up of ten items. In the horizontal bar Anderson and De Sola of Yale carried away the palm, with Miller of New York University, and Holtzhauer of Princeton about level for second and Elliason of Pennsylvania fourth. This latter athlete is splendidly developed in his upper works and light underneath thereby having a great advantage, and by long odds he won the decision in the parallel bars. De Sola of Yale was second and Granger of Princeton third. In the side horse the exhibitors were Wakeman and Anderson of Yale and Peck and Belcher, New York University. After fifteen minutes of scientific work the number was declared a draw.

The flying rings was productive of some aplendid work, especially between Kempf of Pennsylvania and DeSola of Yale, with the verdict finally going to Philadelphia. Dunning of Princeton was a good third. Tomlinson of Pennsylvania gave a rare exhibition of baten swinging and Wallewer and Blakeman of Princeton set the crowd wild by a special act on the double trapeze. Mix of Yale, Somerset of Pennsylvania and Brayden. New York, did some fancy club swinging without any decision being given. Anderson, Yale, and Dunning, Princeton, were the best of the tumblers. A three-high by Jones, Somet and Speer of Princeton, concluded the night's performance.

The formal opening of the Greenwich Athletic Club took place last night at the symnasium, in West Thirteenth street. "Sen-ator" Faure delivered the opening address and welcomed the Trinity track team, against whom the club's men were matched. The event of the evening was the defeat of Mar-quette, the former armory star, by Mohe of Trinity. The club won the relay race from the visitors by the narrow margin of three inches.

FOSS WINS STUBBORN GAME.

DEFEATS GARDNER IN HANOVER BILLIARD TOURNAMENT.

The Two Are Tied for First Place and Will Play Deciding Contest To-night-Big Runs Help the Victor Poggenburg Beats Conklin in Afternoon Game. Wilson P. Foss last night defeated Edward nament at the Hanover Club, Brooklyn, and tied him for first place. The score was 300 to 280, and it was a stubborn stirring game.

The attendance was so large at the even-ing game that many had to stand and every available inch of space was taken up. No billiard contest in recent years between amateurs has attracted so much attention. Foss won the bank, and on a kiss hit the white ball flush in the nose. He would have counted without the kiss as his opening gun was trained with accurate aim. He rolled the balls about the table at liberal distances for a content to the price of the p for 8 points, then miscued on a force draw. Jardner's first shot was a follow down the side rail, precise in its execution.

There was black art in Jardner's cue in the second inning, not as regards quantity, but quality. Each shot of the sixteen required both gray matter and first-class manipulation and Jardner worked wonders with the cushions as intermediaries. His sixteenth shot was sensational. The balls were lined up near one end on a side rail. Jardner spurned a masse, but went in for fireworks. He made the first object ball kiss the second up to the far end rail, with the cue ball in hot pursuit.

Conklins, 6 23-36.

Harvard Fencers Win From Columbia. CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Feb. 13.—Harvard won its first dual fencing match with Columbia to-night by a score of 7 to 2. The match was held in the Hemingway Gymnasium in Cambridge, and a large crowd turned out to see the interesting contest. It was evi-dent from the start that the New York boys dent from the start that the New York boys were outclassed and Pitou was the only one of the Columbia team to show really good form. He won both of Columbia's points, defeating all the Harvard team except St. Gaudens. For Harvard St. Gaudens was easily the star, recovering well from his lunges, and placing his points accurately. St. Gaudens won all three of his bouts, each of the other two members of Harvard's team winning two and losing one. The bouts between Arnold and Holmes, and Arnold and St. Gaudens were the closest of the match, both requiring extra periods for a decision. Bouts won by Harvard—St. Gaudens. 3: Holmes, 2: Roberts, 2. By Columbia—Pitou, 2.

George Gardner Gets Decision Over Al Weinig. BOSTON, Feb. 13.-If Al Weinig of Buffalo had not taken such a lot of punishment in his bout with George Gardner of Lowell at his bout with George Gardner of Lowell at the Maverick A. C., this evening, most of the spectators would have been suspicious that it was a frame-up. The Buffalo man was knocked down repeatedly and hammered vigorously from the time he stepped out of his corner till the gong rang. The men were scheduled ten rounds at catch weights, and both weighed about 163 pounds So badly did Gardner punish his man that Ref-eree Sheehan stopped the bout in the sixth and gave the decision to Gardner.

Practical Temperance

The most confirmed drunkards have been and are being reclaimed and fully cured by the Oppenheimer Treatment. Our claims are based on ten years' experience in the successful treatment of cases of alcoholism of all kinds.

Patient sleeps normally in three to five days. His system is restored to its normal condition after a few days' treatment, and all craving for whiskey or alcoholic stimulant is absolutely removed. His general health is positively improved. No hypodermics are employed. The patient's occupation is not interfered with. Residence at the Institute is optional in cases of alcoholism.

Drug addictions are treated with equal success.

A Cry Against the Londed Ball. TO THE EDITOR OF THE SUN-Sr: I have re-cently heard and read much concerning the "loaded bowling ball," as used recently by members of the loaded ball come into universal use. I can pre with but little practice. Give us an honest ball and pin, the latter to be of standard weight and shape, the bottom perfectly flat so that it will not rock, when placed on the spot. I am sure lecho the sentiments of every honest bowler, when I say, down with the dishonest loaded ball. We will tolerate honesty only and encourage him who plays an honest game, and cheer him for a well-earned score. I carnestly hope our boys will show their disguast for the new order of things by not attending the meeting in indianapolis.

I was pleased to notice the words printed on the top of the schedule of The Sun Individual championabile tournament, viz. "31, lb. plus" and "no loaded balls." This tournament always the most important and interesting of the year, repudiates the fake ball and rightly so. All ball to The Sun that never sets, and shines for all. with but little practice. Give us an honest ball a great fight, and now there is talk of having him meet Gans at Fort Eric for twenty rounds.

The date of Young Corbett's contest with Eddie Hanlon of San Francisco has been set for Feb. 25. The match is at 126 pounds, at 3 o'clock, or 127 pounds at 4 o'clock. The mill will be held before the San Francisco A. C.. San Francisco.

Harry Forbes, who meets Andrew Tokell of England for the bantam title of the world at Detroit on Feb. 27, is in great trim for the mill. Forbes is training at Chicago and is confident of success. He says that if he fails to whip the Englishman he will quit the ring for good.

Joe Choynski said the other day that he had made up his mind to quit the fixing game. "This time i mean what I say," added the popular Call fornism. "I have been at it for nearly nineteen years and I think it time to stop. Remember, I do not quit because of any physical deformity. I am in as good form as I ever was. But the wear and tear of pugilism is too much for any man I expect to do a lot of gruelling, however, before I retire."

Johnny Mack, who is looking after the interests.

and tear of pugitam is too mach any many any many in expect to do a bot of gruelling, however, before I retire."

Johnny Mack, who is looking after the interests of Danny Duane, says that be will arrange a match between Duane and Jack Downey of Brooklyn, provided some club will offer a purse.

Peter Maher is figuring on taking a trip to Ireland this summer to see his old home. Maher has not been across the water for years.

Tommy Ryan says that he will be ready to arrange a match with Jack O'Brien of Philadelphia as soon as the latter is able to stand training again. O'Brien broke one of his hands some time ago and the injury has kept him out of the ring ever since. O'Brien, however, thinks that he will be able to fight again by March.

"Some people do not think that I am in carness about meeting Bob Fritzsimmons," said Marvin Hart recently. "But I am and if he will give me the chance I will go against him for four or six rounds. I am keeping in active trim all the time, so that he will not catch me napping in case there is something doing."

Jack Jeffries is after a match with Jack Johnson. Before the latter defeated "Denver Ed" Martin Jeffries posted a forfeit to meet the winner and thinks that he is entitled to a match.
